d e d i c a t i o n

- For friendly guidance and loyalty,
- For constant support and encouragement,
- For going along with impractical schemes,
- For helping to make our class projects fun,
- For understanding,
- For all these, and more,

We, the class of 1963, with sincere gratitude, dedicate our Caribbean to

Mr. Richard W. Bock

in memoriam

Carl F. Maedl, Jr.

His name was Ricky. He was our classmate and our friend. Always he was a credit to Cristobal High School. He was a quiet boy to all appearances, but underneath ran a rich vein of personality and laughter. He held our love and respect, and we are better for having known him.

Class Will and Testament

We, the graduating class of 1963, being of stout heart and great hopes, and having high expectations for our future and for the future of our country, hereby declare our class will and testament to the beneficiaries named below.

PAT ERNEST—leaves her place in Spanish class to her brother Eric.
 STUART BERNSTEIN—leaves his high speed ground radiator cap and his Rolls Royce ash trays to Prince Hanyayakavitch.
 NANCY DROHAN—leaves her good times at CHS and driving skills to Charlotte Bialkowski.
 PAT KUNKEL—leaves her locker to Carol La Croix.
 LINETTE DUGAS—leaves her Spanish class to Naomi Kuntz and her gym shoes to Cathy Parker.
 TINKER HOLLOWELL—leaves Alberta Wilder the blue bomb.
 SUZANNE UREY—leaves her ability to do math (?) to Leslie Dugas.
 VIRGINIA KAM—leaves her ability to make that 45-minute break-wall walk to all the passengers of the Fort Sherman School bus.
 MIKE KLASOVSKY—leaves his place in the Roach car and his table at the Ranch to his brother Ivan and Bill Smith.
 ROBERT BOSEMAN—leaves his place to all upcoming classmen who are fit to take over.
 DEMETRIO TAGAROPULOS—leaves his seat in Mr. Pfau's physics class to Everardo Urriola, a Junior who cannot wait until he takes Physics from Mr. Pfau next year.
 BILL LIVINGSTON—leaves his hitch-hiking ability to Eddie Pugh.
 ALBERT PILKERTON—leaves his pig-call to Tad Campbell.
 JAMES JACKSON—leaves the problems of going steady to anybody who wants them.
 CUCA CABANILLAS—leaves her fun (?) in journalism class to Karen Waszak.
 BEV DOCKERY—leaves her beautiful, red, low, interiorized car to anyone who will take it.
 BERNIE HILL—leaves her writer's cramps from homework to Sandy Weigle and her problems to Rosemary Reardon.
 ZANDRA ZIMMERMAN—leaves James Warren Jones to any girl who has enough energy to tame him and her two sisters, Esther and Alice, to anyone with a big enough sense of humor to take them.
 TERRY SLAUGHTER—leaves his guard position to Dicky Dugan.
 SANDRA PARKER—leaves her place in Adv. Typing and Mrs. Folsom to Lorraine Urey and Bonnie Ward.
 JOUBIE WYNNE—leaves his "A" average and athletic ability to anyone who can stand the strain and hide it as well as he did.
 KATHLEEN DELAPP—leaves her so-called "lead feet" to her sister Nancy.
 MIRIAM RAMIREZ—leaves CHS to her brother Alex.
 CHARLES VOWELL—leaves all his old clutch plates to Tom Hickey.
 LONNIE SMITH—leaves her athletic ability (?) to Sandy Eckhoff.
 RUSTY FIELD—leaves his 5-year-old, just ripe, U.S. Keds to Nancy DeLapp.
 DOUGLAS ALBERGA—leaves his '52 Chevy (named Betsy) to Estelle Davison, who loves to ride in ultra-modern cars.
 DIANE RAMSEY—leaves Pancho the pleasure of walking alone next year.
 JEANETTE HANNBERG—leaves her good times in CHS to her sister Arlene.
 JACK HOLCOMB—leaves his Black Roach to Kenny Karpinski and Don McCullough.
 KATHLEEN CLANCY—just leaves.
 BUTCH PENNINGTON—leaves his seat in the Roach to Robert Valentine.
 ANDY NICOLAISEN—leaves his tuba and string bass to anyone big enough to play them.
 YVONNE MORALES—leaves her mechanical drawing to Ralph Jr. and all that goes with CHS to her up-coming sister, Luella.
 LUCIA OCHOA—leaves Mr. Pfau's physics problems to Arlene Hannberg and Vaudie Robinson, if they understand them.

GRACE CRAIG—leaves what there is left to all the up and coming seniors next year.
 BONNIE CONKLIN—leaves her countless problems to Janet Hoverson.
 LEWIS FRENCH—leaves the Battalion Commander's box in the officers' office to anyone who can clean it out.
 JOANNE JONES—leaves her ability to persevere in Mr. Bock's class to Sandy Weigle.
 MAE JACQUES—leaves her lovable gym suit, bouncing sneakers, and outstanding athletic ability to any enthusiastic gym lover.
 DON STOHRER—leaves his nickname of Bullet to Doug Billison.
 JOSEPHINE BORSELLINO—leaves all her books to her brother Frank and her place in Adv. Typing to Carol LaCroix and Jackie Aldrich.
 RAY MADISON—leaves his two shot transmissions to Harry Murray.
 RENE OWEN—leaves the task of upholding the British CHS spirit to her younger brother.
 DIANE ROSCOE—leaves it all to Alberta Wilder.
 TED DAVIS—leaves it all to George Kandrin and George Evans.
 CARMEN FERNANDEZ—leaves her cafeteria table to any student who would enjoy it as much as she has during the past four years.
 ROBERT HAMMOND—takes everything with him.
 RICHARD GONZALES—wishes he had something to leave.
 DIANA CLARKE—leaves her fun, trouble, and homework to anyone who wants it and the Swinging Safari to her brother Cris.
 HELEN GEORGE—leaves loudly but surely.
 ELAINE ASBURY—leaves her last two years in high school to her sister Diane.
 DOREEN BAAS—leaves her ability to get things undone to Barbara Del Vecchio and Nancy Hopkins.
 CAROLYN ROWLEY—leaves first period gym class to anyone who is brave, courageous, adventurous, and crazy enough to want it.
 HARRIETT HEWITT—leaves the Retrogressive Party to Tommy Heppenheimer.
 SUE BARFIELD—leaves her ability to throw an egg and hit the target to anyone who thinks they can get away with it and her name "Moose" to Gayle Fettler.
 CLARA TOBIN—leaves her gym shoes to Betty Jane Reif.
 BOB HAUSER—leaves his sunglasses to Judy Paulson and his football ability to Don McCullough.
 JOSE FUENTES—leaves his track shoes to Ray Ramirez, baseball glove to Doug Billison, and football shoes to anyone who wants them.
 JOHN LOWE—leaves all his football shoes to Doug Billison and his number to anyone who wants it.
 CURTIS THOMPSON—leaves his faithful gym shoes and chemistry answer book to Victor Trevino.
 ED GREEN—leaves all his love to all his girl-friends.
 HARRY BUTCHER—leaves his charming ability to get along with the faculty to anyone who wants it.
 LAURAY WILL—leaves willingly.
 PAT SEAMAN—leaves her ability to talk all day and not say a thing to Jane Yocum.
 TULA BROWN—leaves her height to Orrin Clement, her school spirit to Peggy MacConnell, and anything else to Sandy Weigle.
 PATSY LEE—leaves Mickey McElhone, regretfully.
 PAT DALY—leaves happy and anxiously with Robert Hammond and leaves all the joke-telling to Sue Buss.
 TERRY BRENNER—leaves her ability to blush to anyone who doesn't embarrass easily.
 KENNY SANDERS—leaves nothing to nobody.
 BILL REDMAN—leaves everything to everybody.

Class Prophecy

As we look ten years into the future, we see the members of the Class of '63 scattered far and wide, and employed in many varied occupations.

The world of music and entertainment has claimed many. HELEN GEORGE, famous coloratura soprano, is currently appearing in The Road to the Canal Zone, the acclaimed opera by MIRIAM RAMIREZ and VIRGINIA KAM. Hillbilly singer KAREN SANDERS retired recently to take up a closer study of dentistry. Another noted performer is RICHARD CARPENTER, whose jazz percussion interpretation of "Let's Have It Quiet Please" is played daily on the Hit Parade by Disc Jockey CURTIS THOMPSON. At Jackson's Japanese Theater—a resplendent edifice in the heart of downtown Gatun, owned by Congressman JAMES JACKSON—ZANDI ZIMMERMAN is demonstrating her award-winning talents in YVONNE LELAIDIER'S dazzling production of As Lou Lack It. CARLA MEEHAN is her personal wardrobe mistress. Attending the premier were such notables as JIM HOVERSON—eccentric millionaire playboy, BUTCH PENNINGTON—Governor of the Canal Zone, JOANNE JONES—Executive Secretary of the Mickey Mouse Club, KATHLEEN DELAPP—star of her own daily TV show, Kids Klub, DOUG ALBERGA—President of Panama, and JOSE FUENTES—famed talent scout.

VINCENT CANAMAS delivers the unsuccessful cases of ulcer specialist ALBERT PILKERTON to ROBERT HAMMOND, who has become a mortician in Chicago. His wife, the former PAT DALY, is chief receptionist for the establishment. Slick lawyer JOUBIE WYNNE is pleading the Fifth Amendment for BILL HUFF, who made a wisecrack about Ohio.

Many are busy in the field of science. Deep in his mammoth research plant, MIKE BURZA is on the verge of the discovery of a cure for the common cold. BOBBY COLLINS, international mummy specialist, is accompanying archeologists GERALD GREEN, BILL REDMOND, and LEWIS FRENCH, who report progress from Egypt in their search for Cleopatra's funeral barge. Eminent skin diver EDDY GREEN had a narrow escape recently while delivering a newspaper to underwater geologist ROBERT BOSEMAN. He was mistaken for an enemy sub by Rear Admiral BUZZ SHARICK. CUCA CABANILLAS, a civil engineer, heads a large staff, including DOREEN BAAS, and KATHLEEN CLANCY, aristocratic social butterfly. She is competing with TOM ROBERTSON for the job of draining the old mill stream. Texan Dentist KENNY COOPER is reported to have struck oil.

LANCE CHESHIRE, a prosperous businessman, is making a fortune manufacturing money, the latest status symbol. JAMES HARRIS, is a salesman for Flubbergum Company, owned by PAT KUNKEL. Flubbergum will not lose its flavor overnight, as RICHARD GONZALES advertises on Channel HAHA, if stored on bedposts especially manufactured by wealthy tycooness, YVONNE MORALES.

In the private clinic owned by Doctor TERRY SLAUGHTER, TINKER HOLLOWELL, famous drag racer, under the solicitous care of nurses RITA GEYER and TULA BROWN is recuperating from the effects of a race she lost to a Terminales Truck.

ELAINE ASBURY, with her immortal abstract "Secant Curve," and JOHN LOWE, popular author of The Quarterback Sneak recently shared honors in an international culture contest. Judges for the contest were DOMINIQUE DE REILHAC—President of the Seventeenth Republic of France, DIANA CLARKE—noted psychologist, and RENE OWEN—the first woman Prime Minister of England. Claiming royalty is PRINCESS TOBIN, who rules supreme over one square inch in Afghanistan.

ANDY NICOLAISEN, extemporaneous dissertation marathon winner, and TED DAVIS, renowned lecturer on the psychological effects of bridge playing, are staying at the Miami Hillton, owned by wealthy BERNICE HILL, where JACK BRAYTON and GEORGE ANGLE are ace bellboys. BONNIE CONKLIN assists FRED NEWHARD, lord of the culinary dominion.

At the modern new race track, owned by JEANNETE HANNBERG, GEORGE PATTON, has recently won the Kentucky Derby. His rider was GORDON SANDERS. Afterwards, they were feted at a celebration by Hollywood hostesses LAURAY WILL, PAT VAN DYKE, and DIANNE ROSCOE. Also attending were MARGARET O'BRIAN and JUDY STEPP, who are collaborating on their high school memoirs.

The famous beachcombing trio, SANDY PARKER, SUZANNE UREY and LINNETTE DUGAS, occasionally write for ROY HALL, Editor of Angry Magazine. MARCY WOOD, who leads a drum and bugle corps in California and MAE JACQUES, Brownie Leader, type copy part time.

PATSY LEE, who models for the Sears and Roebuck Spring Catalog and CELIA CRONAN, nation-wide news commentator, share an apartment with SHEILA SANDER, Secretary to the Spanish Consul, NANCY DROHAN, Private Eye, and TERRY BRENNER, who narrates ladies exercise records.

JACK HOLCOMB is employed as assistant manager in the firm owned by RUSTY FIELD, which manufactures canned laughter. BOBBY HAUSER supplies the laughter free, and business keeps smiling secretaries JO BORSELLINO and CARMEN FERNANDEZ extremely busy.

LONNIE SMITH is currently writing campaign jingles for DONALD STOHRER, who is running for Mayor of New York. JOHN BURNS has been named his running mate. CAROLYN ROWLEY has organized a filibusters union, rumored to merge soon with the lobbyists union headed by PAT SEAMAN.

WILL WILL, cheerleader for the Green Bay Packers, babysits part-time for housewives BETTY BERTONCINI and CHERYL PHILLIPS. BILL LIVINGSTON is the senior Truant Officer in the school which the ten children of SUE BARFIELD attend. Living nearby are PAT ERNEST, who grows roses for the Rose Bowl Game and GRACE CRAIG who models Revlon Nail Polish in the Tea Taster's Weekly, published by ping-pong champion CHARLEY VOWELL. MIKE KLASOVSKY, bodyguard to ITO MADISON, and his boss, who owns a chain of shoe shine stands, vacation occasionally at Pina Beach, where COLLIN CORRIGAN and KENNY SANDERS run a lush ice-cold soda stand.

HARRIETT HEWITT is looking for a job ghost-writing class prophecies.

Most Valuable Player

John Lowe

Because he lived up to the duties and responsibilities of his halfback position on the football squad, John Lowe was chosen for the honor of most valuable player.

His strong forward drive and excellent passing was witnessed by many a football fan during the 1962-1963 season. His individual performance complemented the untiring endeavors of the rest of the team. He has lettered in football for the past three years.

John was chosen for the Canal Zone All-Stars in the 1962-1963 season, one of only four from Cristobal High. We lost this game, but John won praise and increased his already outstanding ability on the gridiron.
